

Transfer Admission Guarantees

A two-year Associate's degree from Seattle Central College is your key to transferring to one of the thousands of well-known four-year colleges and universities in the United States. To assist with the transfer process, Seattle Central offers a Transfer Admission Guarantee letter* from up to two of our partner institutions, at the same time of admission.

The acceptance materials you receive from Seattle Central will include the conditional admission letters from the universities you have chosen. You can show these letters to the U.S. Embassy or Consulate as you explain your academic goals and obtain your student visa.

Steps To Your 4-Year Degree

1. Submit Seattle Central's application, indicating your transfer preference(s)
2. Receive admission from Seattle Central and a Transfer Admission Guarantee letter from up to two of our university partners
3. Interview at U.S. embassy or consulate and apply for F-1 visa
4. Complete first two years of Bachelor's degree at Seattle Central
5. Complete last two years of Bachelor's degree at a partner university
6. Receive Bachelor's degree

* Specific transfer GPA and other requirements apply. University admission agreements are subject to general university policies which may change based on demographic or economic conditions.
